Description of credentials: QA - T= Transliterating QA - I = Interpreting
Persons holding a state QA level III or above are approved by GA-GDOL as entry-level professionals and must abide by the Registry of Interpreters for the Deaf (RID, Inc.) Code of Ethics.

Level III – reflects an intermediate level of performance; qualified to work in basic settings with minimum supervision. This level is not appropriate for work in legal, mental health, platform, and serious medical or critical situations of any nature.

Level IV – reflects an advanced level of performance; may function well expressively and receptively.

Level V – reflects a skilled specialist level of performance; recommended for expressive and receptive assignments in a wide variety of settings including highly technical situations.
